Mormon Church to exclude children of same-sex couples from getting blessed and baptized until they are 18

By Sarah Pulliam Bailey November 6, 2015

<https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/acts-of-faith/wp/2015/11/05/mormon-church-to-exclude-children-of-same-sex-couples-from-getting-blessed-and-baptized-until-they-are-18/>

Children of same-sex couples will not be able to join the Mormon Church until they turn 18 — and only if they move out of their parents' homes, disavow all same-sex relationships and receive approval from the church's top leadership as part of a new policy adopted by the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

<https://www.nytimes.com/2015/11/07/us/mormons-gay-marriage.html>

➤ A new section in Handbook 1, 16.13 will be added as follows:

Children of a Parent Living in a Same-Gender Relationship

A natural or adopted child of a parent living in a same-gender relationship, whether the couple is married or cohabiting, may not receive a name and a blessing.

A mission president or a stake president may request approval from the Office of the First Presidency to baptize and confirm, ordain, or recommend missionary service for a child of a parent who has lived or is living in a same-gender relationship when he is satisfied by personal interviews that both of the following requirements are met:

1. The child accepts and is committed to live the teachings and doctrine of the Church, and specifically disavows the practice of same-gender cohabitation and marriage.
2. The child is of legal age and does not live with a parent who has lived or currently lives in a same-gender cohabitation relationship or marriage.

After reading these scriptures together, Bishop Orellana looked at the new convert and said, "If paying tithing means that you can't pay for water or electricity, pay tithing. Leaked Videos Pull Back Curtain on Mormon Leadership

By LAURIE GOODSTEIN OCT. 6, 2016

Ryan McKnight, a former Mormon, stands outside of a Mormon Church temple in Las Vegas, said he published the videos after someone contacted him through Reddit. Isaac Brekken for The New York Times

<https://www.nytimes.com/2016/10/07/us/mormon-videos-leaked.html>

The videos reveal clubby exchanges between the leaders, most of whom belong to the church's Quorum of the Twelve Apostles (the church's second-highest leadership body after the First Presidency), and Mormon politicians and other experts invited in to brief the apostles. In a presentation that has provoked some criticism, former Senator Gordon H. Smith, a Republican of Oregon, shared with the apostles that he voted in favor of the Iraq War partly because he believed it could open the region for Mormon missionaries.

<https://www.nytimes.com/2016/10/07/us/mormon-videos-leaked.html>

"I'm suspicious that the news media cover up anything involving homosexuals when it would work to the disadvantage of the homosexual agenda and so on," LDS apostle Dallin H. Oaks says, "and I was just wondering if there was some of that in this."

Gong says he believed Manning was spurred to disclose hundreds of thousands of sensitive military and diplomatic communications, some of which were classified, because a gay partner broke off their relationship.

Manning was court-martialed and is now incarcerated.

In the video, an unidentified general authority asks Gong if Julian Assange, the leader of WikiLeaks, is gay.

Dear Elder Porter:

Living Allowance Increase for 2014

In accordance with approved procedures, the annual General Authority base living allowance has been increased from $116,400 to $120,000. This will begin with your paycheck issued on January 10, 2014 (pay period 1).

Detailed information on the 2014 medical benefits and related premiums was sent to you earlier by Deseret Mutual Benefit Administrators.

<http://docdro.id/JlekSUK>

LDS Church spokesman Eric Hawkins declined to confirm the salary numbers Monday, while defending the payment of full-time ecclesiastical leaders.

"General authorities leave their careers when they are called into full-time church service," Hawkins said in a statement.

"When they do so, they focus all of their time on serving the church and are given a living allowance. The living allowance is uniform for all general authorities [including First Presidency, Quorum of the Twelve Apostles, First and Second Quorums of the Seventy and Presiding Bishopric]."

No funds for this "living allowance," the spokesman said, "come from the tithing of church members but instead from proceeds of the church's financial investments."

MormonLeaks Goes to Battle With Mormon Church Over Leaked 'Enemy List'

This law firm has the privilege of serving as counsel to MormonLeaks™, and your DMCA notice was forwarded to us for a response. You sent this DMCA notice to remove a PowerPoint presentation from the Internet. That PowerPoint discussed some of the LDS Church's inner workings and public relations strategies. My client obtained this document lawfully and had a right to distribute it in its capacity as a journalistic resource devoted to discussing facts about the LDS Church.

https://mormonleaks.io/wiki/documents/7/7c/Mormon_Leaks_DMCA_Response-2017-03-13.pdf

Even if my client were to never lay eyes or fingers upon it again, it would still be disseminated worldwide. You tried to blow out a single candle, but in the process, you knocked it over into a field of dried leaves. You may have extinguished that initial flame. However, your attempted censorship simply caused the document to be further reproduced and redistributed that even a hypothetical divine being could not possibly undo the dissemination.

https://mormonleaks.io/wiki/documents/7/7c/Mormon_Leaks_DMCA_Response-2017-03-13.pdf

In short, your efforts so far have backfired. Further efforts will backfire more.

THE RECEIPT OF THE REVELATION

OFFERING THE PRIESTHOOD TO MEN OF ALL RACES AND COLORS

June 30, 1978

In recent years the counselors in the First Presidency and all members of the Council of the Twelve have had an acute awareness of the desire of President Spencer W. Kimball to learn the mind and will of the Lord relative to conferring the Holy Priesthood upon worthy males of every race and color. In recent months one aspect or another of this matter has come up for informal discussion in various regular meetings of the First Presidency and the Twelve. There have been discussions for instance, about patriarchal blessings for Negroes and about the problems we might encounter in Brazil after the dedication of the Sao Paulo Temple. As a matter of historical fact, many of the early settlers in Brazil were Portuguese and African Negroes. There was extensive intermarriage. It is generally felt that an appreciable part of the Brazilian nation is now
